TECH3 HISTORY

The Red Bull KTM Tech3 Team, based in Provence, France, has a long history in the MotoGP World Championship, dating back to 1989. The team began its Grand Prix adventure in the 250cc World Championship with Dominique Sarron. In 1993, Tech3 ran American rider John Kocinski in the 250cc series before signing French talent Olivier Jacque. Jacque won a 250cc title against teammate Shinya Nakano in 2000, showcasing the team's growing reputation.

In 2001, Tech3 joined the MotoGP class, partnering with Yamaha in the premier series. Nakano scored Tech3's first MotoGP podium in Germany in 2001, and the first MotoGP win was taken by Miguel Oliveira in 2020 at the Styria Grand Prix.

Over the years, Tech3 has had some of the biggest racing talents, including Norick Abe, Carlos Checa, Alex Barros, Marco Melandri, Colin Edwards, Ben Spies, Cal Crutchlow, Andrea Dovizioso, Pol Espargaro, Bradley Smith, Johann Zarco, Jonas Folger, Hafizh Syahrin, Iker Lecuona, Danilo Petrucci, Remy Gardner, and Raul Fernandez.

In 2023, the GASGAS Factory Racing Tech3 team featured experienced Spaniard Pol Espargaro and 2022 Moto2™ World champion Augusto Fernandez. The team faced a difficult year in 2022, losing its captain due to a crash. Fernandez made a strong start to his rookie season, scoring points in eleven consecutive rounds. Pol Espargaro returned to racing after four months.

In 2024, the Red Bull GASGAS Tech3 squad saw a strong lineup with Augusto Fernandez for a second season and Pedro Acosta, a two-time World Champion. Acosta was crowned Rookie of the Year and finished sixth in the championship. In 2025, Tech3 will return to KTM orange with Enea Bastianini and Maverick Vinales with one of the strongest line-up ever for the team.
