GRAND PRIX OF HUNGARY

BALATON PARK, HUNGARY

05-06-07 JUNE 2026

GUEST INTRODUCTION

---

Welcome to the Red Bull KTM Tech3 team!

If you are receiving this document, it is because we are getting ready to welcome you for a packed-action weekend of MotoGP at the paddock in Balaton, and the whole team is super excited to count you amongst us this weekend, which marks round 8 of the 2026 season.

In this guide, you will find a good amount of information, that should be useful to you during the course of the GP, and hopefully it will make your life easier understanding what is happening, and where you can go!

After an intense round in Mugello at the Italian GP last week, both Enea Bastianini and Maverick Viñales are ready for another race weekend, as MotoGP™ heads to Balaton Park for the second year in a row! Last year, Bastianini qualified in 4th but two race incidents in both sprint and race saw him go home with no points. Having shown good form recently, the Italian will look to deliver a good result in Balaton. Injured last year, Viñales will make his debuts in Balaton as the Spaniard continues to build on strength following his corrective surgery two months ago.

In the Moto3 class, you will be able to see Valentin Perrone and Rico Salmela in action! Both Red Bull KTM Tech3 riders will be looking to bounce back from a disappointing campaign in Mugello.
